

PUMA BIOTECHNOLOGY, INC.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE GUIDELINES

I. The Mission of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Puma Biotechnology, Inc. (the “Company”) believes that its primary responsibility is to provide effective governance over the Company’s affairs for the benefit of stockholders. The Board and its committees are responsible for determining that the Company is managed in such a way as to ensure this result. This is an active, not a passive, responsibility. The Board has the responsibility to ensure that in good times, as well as difficult ones, management is capably executing its responsibilities, and has adopted the following guidelines to assist it in the exercise of its responsibility. These guidelines are reviewed periodically and revised as appropriate to reflect the dynamic and evolving processes relating to the operation of the Board and its committees. These Corporate Governance Guidelines (these “Guidelines”) are intended as a component of the flexible framework within which the Board, assisted by its committees, directs the affairs of the Company. They are not intended to establish by their own force any legally binding obligations.

II. Selection and Composition of the Board

Size of the Board: The Board currently has five (5) members. The Board believes that five members is an appropriate number based on the Company’s present circumstances, but the Board will periodically evaluate whether a larger slate of directors would be preferable.

Board Membership Criteria: The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board works with the Board as a whole on an annual basis to determine the appropriate skills and characteristics required of Board members in the context of the current make-up of the Board and its committees. In evaluating the suitability of individual Board members, the Board considers many factors, including issues of experience, wisdom, integrity, skills such as understanding of finance and marketing, educational and professional background, and willingness to devote adequate time to Board duties. At all times, at least one member of the Board must meet the definition of “financial expert” set forth in the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the “Sarbanes-Oxley Act”) for service on the Company’s Audit Committee, and all members of the Board serving on the Company’s Audit Committee must meet the requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (the “Nasdaq”) and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. Board members are expected to prepare for, attend, and participate in all Board and applicable committee meetings. Each Board member is expected to ensure that other existing and planned future commitments do not materially interfere with the member’s service as an outstanding director.

Candidates nominated for the election or re-election to the Board should possess the following qualifications:

- high personal and professional ethics, integrity, practical wisdom and mature judgment;
- broad training and experience at the policy-making level in business, government, education or technology;

- expertise that is useful to the Company and complementary to the background and experience of other Board members;
- willingness to devote the required amount of time to carrying out duties and responsibilities of Board membership;
- commitment to serve on the Board over a period of several years to develop knowledge about the Company's principal operations; and
- willingness to represent the best interests of all stockholders and objectively appraise management performance.

Majority of Independent Directors on Board: Independent directors must constitute a majority of the Board.

Board Definition of What Constitutes Independence for Directors: The Company complies with the rules promulgated by the Nasdaq for determining the independence of directors, as well as the Sarbanes-Oxley Act requirements for independence of directors on the Audit Committee. Compliance with these requirements is reviewed annually by the Nominating and Governance Committee.

Selection of New Directors: The entire Board is responsible for nominating members for election to the Board and for filling vacancies on the Board that may occur between annual meetings of the stockholders. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for identifying, screening, and recommending candidates to the entire Board for prospective Board membership. When formulating its Board membership recommendations, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also considers any advice and recommendations offered by the Chief Executive Officer or the Company's stockholders. The Board evaluates each individual in the context of the Board as a whole, with the objective of recommending a group that can best perpetuate the success of the business and represent shareholder interests through the exercise of sound judgment using its diversity of experience in these various areas. In determining whether to recommend a director for re-election, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also considers the director's past attendance at meetings and participation in and contributions to the activities of the Board.

Extending the Invitation to a Potential Director to Join the Board: The invitation to join the Board is generally extended by the Board itself via the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, together with an independent director, when appropriate.

Director Orientation and Continuing Education: The Company will maintain an orientation program for new directors and a continuing education program for all directors. The orientation program will include comprehensive information about the Company's business and operations, general information about the Board and its committees, including a summary of director compensation and benefits, and a review of director duties and responsibilities.

Term of Office and Term Limits: The Board does not believe it should establish term limits. While term limits could help ensure that there are fresh ideas and viewpoints available to the Board, they hold the disadvantage of losing the contribution of directors who have been able to develop, over a period of time, increasing insight into the Company and its operations and, therefore, provide an increasing contribution to the Board as a whole. In connection with each director nomination recommendation, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall consider the issue of continuing director tenure and take steps as may be appropriate to ensure that the Board maintains an openness to new ideas and a willingness to critically reexamine the status quo.

Director Retirement Policy: At this time, the Board has not established a policy regarding a maximum age after which a director may not stand for election to the Board. The Board may revise this policy at any time, based on the recommendation of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, as it deems appropriate in the interests of the Company's stockholders.

Membership on other Boards: A director of the Board may serve as a director of another company only to the extent such position does not conflict or interfere with such person's service as a director of the Company. A director of the Board may not serve as a director of more than three publicly-held companies without the Board's consent.

Director Responsibilities: The Board, as a whole, has the responsibility to ensure that in good times, as well as difficult ones, management is capably executing its responsibilities. In order for the Board to satisfy its responsibilities, each director, at a minimum, is expected to attend a significant majority of all Board meetings and to carefully review all meeting materials in advance of such meetings.

III. Board Leadership

Selection of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer: The Board believes the positions of Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board may be combined, where appropriate, to provide unified leadership and direction. The Board reserves the right to adopt a different policy should circumstances change. The Chief Executive Officer or Chairman shall work closely with the entire Board and have regular substantive communications with the chairperson of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

Chairperson of the Nominating and Governance Committee / Lead Independent Director: The Chairperson of the Nominating and Governance Committee shall serve as the lead independent director of the Board, and will be responsible for chairing the regular sessions of the independent directors.

Separate Sessions of Independent Directors: The independent directors shall communicate on a regular basis, but not less than two times a year, and shall meet in executive session at the beginning or conclusion of each regularly-scheduled Board meeting.

IV. Board Compensation, Performance and Stock Ownership

Board Compensation: The Company's executive officers shall not receive additional compensation for their service as directors. In accordance with its charter, the Compensation Committee periodically reviews the fees and benefits paid to non-employee directors and submits any recommended changes to the Board regarding such fees and benefits. The compensation received by the members of the Audit Committee from the Company is specifically limited to those fees paid for their services as directors and members or chairperson of any committees of the Board. The Company believes that compensation for independent directors should be competitive and should encourage increased ownership of the Company's stock through the payment of a portion of director compensation in Company stock, deferred compensation stock equivalents or options to purchase the Company's stock. Company management should report to the Board on an annual basis as to how the Company's director compensation practices compare with those of other similar type corporations. The Board should make changes in its director compensation practices only upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, and following discussion and concurrence by the full Board.

Assessing the Board's Performance: The Nominating and Governance Committee shall deliver a report annually to the Board assessing the Board's performance. This report will be discussed with the full Board. This should be done following the end of each fiscal year. This assessment should be of the Board's contribution as a whole and should specifically review areas in which the Board and/or the management believes a better and improved contribution may be made. Its purpose is to increase the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, and not to focus on the performance and comportment of individual directors.

Stock Ownership: The Company believes that non-employee directors and certain other executive officers designated by the Board should be stockholders and have a financial stake in the Company. The Company encourages such ownership stakes and compensates its non-employee directors and certain other executive officers with stock options under the Company equity compensation plan. Nevertheless, the number of shares of the Company's stock that any non-employee director or executive officer owns is a personal decision and, at this time, the Board has chosen not to adopt a policy requiring ownership by directors of a minimum number of shares.

V. Board Relationship to Senior Management

Regular Attendance of Non-Directors at Board Meetings: The Board encourages attendance at each Board meeting of non-Board members who are in the most senior management positions of the Company. Should the Chairman or the Chief Executive Officer wish to invite officers as attendees on a regular basis, it is expected that this suggestion would be made to the Board for its concurrence.

Board Access to Senior Management and Independent Advisors: Board members have complete access to the Company's management, subject to reasonable time constraints, in order to ensure that directors can ask any questions and receive all information necessary to perform their duties. It is assumed that Board members will use judgment to be sure that this contact is not detracting from the business operations of the Company, and that such contact, if in writing, be copied to the Chief Executive Officer. Furthermore, the Board encourages the management to bring, from time to time, managers into Board meetings who: (a) can provide additional insight into the items being discussed because of personal involvement in these areas, and/or (b) are managers with future potential that the senior management believes should be given exposure to the Board. Board members also shall have complete access (financial and otherwise), as necessary and appropriate, to independent advisors, but shall act as prudent purchasers of such services.

Board's Interaction with Institutional Investors, Press, Customers, etc.: The Board recognizes the Company's management as spokespersons for the Company, but also understands that individual directors may occasionally communicate with third parties on matters affecting the Company. Before doing so, to the extent feasible, it is expected that this communication would be made with the concurrence of management and with cognizance of the Company's legal obligation.

VI. Meeting Procedures

Frequency of Meetings: The Board will meet at least four times annually. At least one meeting shall be devoted in part to longterm strategic planning. In addition, special meetings may be called from time to time as determined by the needs of the business. Additionally, meetings may be called whenever requested by the Chairman of the Board, the President or a majority of directors. It is each director's responsibility to attend these meetings.

Selection of Agenda Items for Board Meetings: The Chairman of the Board establishes the agenda for each Board meeting, with input from management and, as necessary or as desired, from other directors..

Board Materials Distributed in Advance: Information and data that is relevant to the Board's understanding of the matters to be discussed at an upcoming Board meeting will be distributed in writing (where feasible) or electronically to all Board members in advance of the meeting. This will help facilitate the efficient use of time at Board meetings to deliberate and make decisions on key Company issues. Management will make every attempt to ensure that the material being distributed is as concise as possible while still providing sufficient information to make informed decisions. The Board acknowledges that certain items to be discussed at Board meetings are of an extremely sensitive nature, and that the distribution of materials on these matters prior to Board meetings may not be appropriate.

Board Presentations: Presentations on specific subjects may be sent to the Board members in advance so that Board meeting time may be conserved and discussion time focused on questions that the Board has about the material. On those occasions in which the subject matter is too sensitive to put on paper, the presentation will be discussed at the meeting.

VII. Committee Matters

Number, Structure, and Independence of Committees: From time to time, the Board may want to form a new committee or disband a current committee depending upon changed circumstances or requirements of the Board. The current committees are the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Each of the members of the Audit, Compensation and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committees shall satisfy the applicable independence requirements of the Nasdaq, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and any other applicable regulatory requirements. Each committee will perform its duties as assigned by the Board in accordance with the Company's bylaws and as set forth in the committee's charter. These may be described briefly as follows:

- Audit Committee. Each member of the Audit Committee is an independent director. The Audit Committee reviews the work of the Company's internal accounting and audit processes and the work of the Company's independent auditors. The committee has authority to appoint the Company's independent auditors.
- Compensation Committee. Each member of the Compensation Committee is an independent director. The Compensation Committee stays informed as to market levels of compensation and, based on evaluations, recommends to the Board compensation levels and systems for the Company. It also administers the Company's equity-based incentive plans and related employee and management incentive and benefit plans, including the review and grant of equity and cash based awards under such plans. The Compensation Committee establishes the compensation of senior executives on an annual basis.
- Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. Each member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is an independent director. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for recommending to the Board individuals to be nominated as directors. This includes evaluation of new candidates as well as evaluation of current directors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also reviews and reports to the Board on matters of corporate governance (that is, the relationships of the Board, the stockholders and management in determining the direction and performance of the Company) and reviews and addresses these Guidelines and recommends revisions as appropriate.

Assignment and Rotation of Committee Members: The Board is responsible for the appointment of committee members according to the criteria that it determines to be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. It is the sense of the Board that consideration should be given to rotating committee members periodically, but the Board does not feel that such a rotation should be mandated as a policy.

Selection of Committee Chairs: The chairperson of each committee shall be appointed by the Board.

Frequency and Length of Committee Meetings: Each committee chair, in consultation with committee members, will determine the frequency and length of the meetings of such committee in accordance with the committee's respective charter and other legal and regulatory requirements.

Committee Agendas: The chair of each committee, in consultation with the appropriate members of the committee and management, will develop such committee's agenda. The agendas of the committees will be shared with the full Board. Other Board members are welcome to attend committee meetings; however, committees may exclude from their meetings any person they deem appropriate.

VIII. Leadership Development

Formal Evaluation of the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer: The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer will be expected to report annually to the independent directors of the Board on his or her goals and objectives for the ensuing year, and also to report annually on the level of achievement of the preceding year's goals and objectives. All Board members shall be invited to those particular meetings, and shall have the opportunity to participate in any appropriate follow-up meetings or discussions. The Compensation Committee shall participate in the evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer and Chairman. The evaluation should be based on objective and subjective criteria including performance of the business, accomplishment of long-term strategic objectives and development of management. The evaluation will be used as a factor by the Compensation Committee when considering the compensation of the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer.

Succession Planning: The Board deems as one of its most critical functions the selection of a Chief Executive Officer and management team that fits the Company's current culture, understands its business and inspires employees. To that end, the Board will establish an executive succession plan tailored to reflect the Company's current business strategy and vision. The executive succession plan involves creating profiles of ideal candidates based on the Board's understanding of the Company's strategy and vision, and selecting successors expected to fit the Company's needs over time. The Board believes that succession planning is a broad-driven, collaborative and continuous process. Accordingly, the Chief Executive Officer and Chairman shall report annually to the Board on succession planning for senior executive positions.

Management Development: The Chief Executive Officer and Chairman shall report annually to the Board on the Company's program for management development. This report is given at the same time as the succession planning report noted previously.
